Absolutely! Will it be translated into German? Because that would be cool to see.

Thanks for the kind words--it's wonderful to hear the appreciation.

Jeff,

I just stumbled across your yesterday's blog post "Zen and the Art of Appreciating Simple Beers", and I have to admit that it is one of the best texts about beer and beer aficionados, I've read during the recent months, if not years. Couldn't agree more with what you have written.

I provide a small and humble German blog about beers and breweries (see www.brunnenbraeu.eu), read by not more than 200 beer geeks mainly in Germany and Poland (but the number is growing). Since your text is absolutely worth reading and being spread beyond my facebook contacts (where I have already shared it), I would like to re-publish it in my blog. Doing this, I would of course provide a link to the original source and some nice words about you and your permission in the footer of the text.

Thus, hereby I kindly ask you for permission to re-blog your text on www.brunnenbraeu.eu.

I'm hoping for a positive answer.

With best regards,

Volker R. Quante
